ANNE ARUNDEL COUNTY COURT. Two of the criminal cases removed from Bal-timore were tried last week. Alexantler James, who was charged with the crime of stealing a pocket book from Alex. Falls, Esq. at the Ex. change Hotel, was convicted, and sentenced to two years and six months labor in the Penitentiary. William Sandford, convicted of stealing a book, was sentenced to the Penitertiary for the same period. A negro boy was sentenced to five years and a half in the Penitentiary, for stealing an umbrella.and a hat. The cases of certain persons indicted in Baltimore City Court under the act against gamlling, were continued until December next, in consequence of the absence of counsel .- American,

BALTIMORE AND OHIO RAIL ROAD. .Among the passengers in the Great Western is the Hon. Louis McLann, President of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road Company, who visited England for the purpose of disposing of the Maryland State Bonds given to that Company in payment of its stock subscription of $3. 000,000. We are gratified to learn that he has succeeded in making such an arrangem at in London as, under the peculiar circumstances of the money market there, is considered quite sutisfactory, and the effect of which will be to enable the Company to continue the prosecution of its work westward with vigour .- Amer.

A DAY OF THANKSGIVING.

The Richmond Compiler copies our remarks in favor of setting apart a day for solemn Public Thanksgiving, and precedes it with the following appropriate observations:

We respectfully direct attention to the article below, from the Baltimore American. Why should there not be a day of public thanksgiving in our good old Commonwealth? What por-tion of our land has been more blessed during the past season than this?-What portion, then, is there that has more cause for gratitude? It would seem peculiarly appropriate that in Vir. year. ginia, ere the season go by, some popular and united tribute shall be offered up for mercies and benefits received!

During that awful time when the shadow of death rested upon our land-when the dark wing of the Pestilence swept through our the cholera smitten were falling around us-solemn conventions of the people were called, and the Throne of Heaven was invoked from the midst of our desolation and our anguish.
